HEROIC DEEDS.

Three Young Persons Saved From a Watery Grave.

Forrest Sammons, Cuddy Wellman and Dewey Peters Rescued by Thos. Branham and Robert Rowe.

On last Thursday afternoon several small boys were fishing from a sandbar just below the lock and dam at this place. Among them were Cuddy Wellman, nine years old, son of John Wellman, and Dewey Peters, a little older, son of James Peters, all of Louisa. The Wellman boy swam toward the pier of the dam, went beyond it and was overpowered by the strong eddying currents caused by the waterfall through the 18-foot part of the dam. Seeing the perilous situation of his companion Dewey Peters bravely dashed into the water and went to his rescue. The whirl of the strong current was too much for the lad's feeble strength and he was soon overpowered. The cries of the boys had attracted the attention of Forrest Sammons, aged about 17, ran from the top of the West Virginia bank to the pier, plunged into the river and swam to the Wellman boy, who seized his rescuer and both were carried by the powerful current to the bed of the river, alternately sinking and rising to the surface of the stream.

In the meantime a young man named Robt. Rowe, of Fort Gay, had hastened to the aid of the drowning boys and saved the Peters boy by means of a pike pole. The office messenger Thomas J. Branham, a man 64 years old, had heard the cries for help and had seen what looked like the sure death of three people, and had lost no time in doing all in his power to avert such a catastrophe. As he reached the water the Wellman boy appeared floating helplessly on the surface. Mr. Branham instantly dashed into the water, grabbed the boy and carried him to the shore, head down, which allowed the water which the lad had swallowed to run out, thereby aiding in his recovery. At this juncture Forrest Sammons came to the top of the water, feebly calling for help. Branham, quick to think and prompt to act, grabbed the pike pole and went with it to exhausted lockman who was by its use and the assistance of his rescuer enabled to reach the shore where he fell, completely exhausted. After resting awhile on the sand Sammons was able to go to his home. He is none the worse, physically, for his strenuous heroism, but as he was making the 100-yard dash to the pier from which he jumped to save the lives of others he removed his coat, and as he did so a ten dollar bill fell from it and he has not seen the money since. Forrest is a fine swimmer, and under ordinary conditions to go into the water and save a drowning boy would have been comparatively easy, but on this occasion the stiff race "winded" him and left him in bad shape for his perilous task.

There certainly were some exhibitions of true heroism on that memorable Thursday afternoon. One life was nearly lost in a brave endeavor to save two others, and without the aid that was rendered three young people would have been lost. The matter will be taken up with those who look after the Andrew Carnegie Hero Fund with the view of having our heroes properly rewarded.

THE JUNE CHILL.

"Never saw anything like it," you say? Well, you are very young or else very forgetful. Why, a big drop in the temperature is very common between June second and June 10. This time we have had fires but no frost has been reported in Louisa, although on Sunday morning the mercury dropped 44. In Ohio and Indiana, however, they had heavy frosts. On June 5, 1859, and again on June 10 the Ohio valley was visited by heavy frosts. The thermometer showed 6 degrees below freezing and all the crops had to be replanted. Fortunately, a big freeze at this time of the year happens only about once in a century.

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED.

Miss Lullie Pyles, of Central City, and Mr. L. K. Pitzer, whose home is in North Carolina, registered at the Brunswick hotel last Wednesday afternoon. They announced an intention to get married, a license was procured, and repairing to the residence of the Rev. Dr. Hanford, that ecclesiastic soon properly made the twin ones. Mr. and Mrs. Pitzer took N. & W. No. 4 at 2 a. m., presumably for the groom's home in the Tar Heel State. The groom is a brakeman on the N. & W.

New Game Law.

The new hunting law will go into effect this week and it will then be unlawful to hunt without a license except on your own premises, owned or leased. The law also applies to seining, trapping or dynamiting fish. The penalty is a fine or imprisonment, or both, and the confiscation of the outfit captured.

Resident hunters that have lived in the State 12 months preceding, may obtain a license by paying $1.00. Non-residents must pay $15. They are issued by the County Clerks on proper application, who will furnish blanks for the purpose.

All persons hunting without a license in possession, ready to be exhibited to any one demanding same, will be subject to a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $25. Licenses are not transferable. Any person who shall make to an officer authorized to issue hunting license, a false statement or change or alter his license in any manner, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200 to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail. That is going after them some. He had better pay one little dollar and be a good law abiding citizen and at the same time help to protect the fish and birds.

The law is also very stringent in regard to killing song birds.

Supt. of Episcopal Mountain Missions.

The Rev. Charles E. Crusoe, of Corbin, Ky., has been made superintendent of all the mountain missions of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Lexington, under the supervision of Bishop L. W. Burton. Mr. Crusoe arrived in Louisa on Friday last enroute to Jenkins and remained until Saturday afternoon. While here Mr. Crusoe looked into the condition of the local mission, visiting and becoming acquainted with his members and other citizens. After going over the entire field, embracing a very large area, he will decide when and where to begin his ministerial work. He is very favorably impressed with Louisa and its people and may make this the home of himself and family.

Mr. Crusoe met many of our citizens while here, and they speak of him in favorable terms.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DEAD.

Garfield Moore Passes Away at His Country Home.

After a long and painful illness dating back for several months, Mr. Garfield Moore, a prominent and popular citizen of Lawrence county, passed peacefully away at his late home near Prosperity at an early hour last Monday morning. It was known throughout this section that Mr. Moore was in very poor health, but none but his immediate friends and relatives believed the end to be so near, hence very many were surprised and sorry when they learned that he was dead. Interment was made on Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of Jake Rice lodge, F. & A. M. The religious services were conducted by the Rev. Albert Miller. A very large number of people attended the burial, the local lodge of Freemasons being well represented. Quite a number, including several members of the Masonic fraternity, were present from Louisa. The burial was made near Mr. Moore's old home. Mr. Moore had rheumatism for several months before he became sick of Bright's disease. He died at the comparatively early age of 45. He was a son of Mr. Carl Moore, who died a few years ago. Garfield Moore is survived by a widow and five children, six brothers and one sister, Mrs. Jeff Moore, of Little Blaine. The brothers are E. L. and Gus, of Charley, Dr. A. H. of Ashland; Dr. Hawes, of Catlettsburg; Dr. John, of California; and Farris, of Indiana. All except the two latter were at the funeral. Mrs. John P. Gartin, Mrs. W. H. Adams, Mr. Lock Moore and Mr. Charles Moore, of Louisa, are cousins of the deceased.

Mr. Moore was prominent in the political history of his county. If the NEWS is not mistaken it was in 1907 that he sought and obtained the Republican nomination for the Legislature, to represent the counties of Boyd and Lawrence. He was elected and made a useful member. He was highly respected by all who knew him, and was an honest, sober, industrious man, a man of much influence in this, his native county. About a year before his death he connected himself with the church and so lived that his end was peaceful and triumphant. When the Destroyer takes such a citizen, one who has not yet reached the meridian of life, one who could reasonably look forward to many more years of usefulness, a gap in the ranks is made which is not filled at once. The bereaved widow and children have the sympathy of many.

Wm. Riffe, of Glenwood was in the NEWS office Thursday.

ANOTHER GOOD WELL.

The Yates Oil Company's Operation Makes Fine Showing.

The Yates Oil Co., shot the Two Mile well twice this week, and the most conservative oil men say that the results are excellent. On Monday the lower sand was shot with a sixty-quart charge, and on the following day 20 quarts were put into the upper sand and let off. There is a steady flow of oil, and preparations are being made to pump as soon as possible.

The NEWS thinks it is entirely safe to say that this, the latest demonstration in the oil field, has brought in one of the best wells yet developed.

The well is on land owned by F. H. Yates and is on the road leading from the Smoky Valley to the Deepdale branch, at the foot of the hill just this side of the old John Diamond place.

Will Lose Prof. J. B. McClure.

Prof. J. B. McClure, who has been a member of the faculty of Kentucky Normal College and Louisa Graded Schools for several years, has decided not to take work here next year. He expects to go South in order to get into a milder climate.

This decision is a cause for regret by the patrons of the school and the college and by this entire community as well. There is nowhere a better teacher, in all the word implies, than Prof. McClure. He is a fine scholar, a close student of the young, and has the happy faculty of inducing his pupils to grasp the knowledge he seeks to impart and to fully comprehend the idea when grasped. He has had years of experience as a teacher and has no lack of calls for his service in remunerative fields. While regretting the necessity which compels Prof. McClure to leave this community, the NEWS takes pleasure in recommending him as a christian gentleman and a first class instructor.

A CENTENARIAN DEAD.

Morgan Martin, said to have been the oldest man in the county died last Monday at the home of his son Will, on the left fork of Little Blaine, about three miles from Busseyville. His exact age is not known, but it is said by some who should know that he had rocked the cradle of Capt. O. D. Botner, of this city, who is living at 93. He came from Virginia when only a child and had lived in Lawrence county the remainder of his long and active life. He left numerous descendants, among whom are William and Byron Martin, and Davis Martin, of Catlettsburg, sons of the deceased. Mr. Davis Martin came up to the funeral of his aged parent. "Uncle Morg," was always a good citizen and had the high respect of all who knew him.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

On Monday evening last Miss Goldie Byington very pleasantly entertained quite a number of young people with music and dancing in honor of her guest, Miss Lurley England, of Pikeville. Besides her visitor there were present Mrs. Burns Johnson, Misses Edith Marcum, Opal Spencer, Emma Vaughan, Anna Peters, Eva Wellman, Jet O'Neal, Messrs. John Vaughan, Paul Frazier, Lucian Hackworth, Chas. York and Fred Vinson.

A SERIOUS OPERATION.

On Saturday last Mrs. Alex. Stump of Walbridge, was operated upon in Ashland for the relief of a condition which, without such radical measures, would have caused her death. Mrs. Stump's friends will be glad to know that she is doing as well as can be hoped for under the circumstances. Her mother and her sister, Miss Kizzle, were with her.

PICNIC AT FOUNTAIN PARK.

The Southern Methodist Sunday school, under the direction of its superintendent, Mr. Augustus Snyder, had a delightful picnic yesterday at Fountain Park, on the Point. The day was ideal for an outing, and the dinner was all that could be desired in quality, quantity and variety. There were some unexpected and many cousins in the happy participants, but no ants, and nobody sat down on the custard pie.

Graduation With Distinction.

William Crooks McClure, son of Mr. George McClure, of Danville, graduated from Center College Wednesday, president of his class. Because of his thorough training and knowledge of the sign and lip language, Mr. McClure has been appointed a teacher in the Gallaudet School for the Deaf in Washington, the finest school of its kind in the world. He is only 20 years old.

Mining Conference at Lexington.

A joint conference of the Kentucky Mining Institute and State mining operators and inspectors, the first ever held in Kentucky, took place at the College of Mines and Metallurgy at State University Monday and Tuesday. Among the principal subjects of discussion were mine administration, methods of minimizing accidents, rescue devices and investigation of the causes of mine explosions and accidents. The United States Bureau of Mines sent Kentucky and Tennessee rescue car No. 3. In charge of E. B. Sutton, who will give practical demonstrations in the most modern mine rescue appliances. C. J. Norwood, State Inspector of Mines of Kentucky, sent out letters to all coal operators and inspectors in the State urging them to have representatives present.

In speaking of the conference Prof. Norwood said:

"We are on the eve of a great expansion in the production of coal, which necessarily means an increase of accident possibilities, and it is my belief that this general exchange of ideas will be beneficial. We all recognize, that the prevention of mine disasters is more important than the rescue of the injured, and yet the rescue work is also essential."

Father of Mrs. Pierce Passes Away.

A telegram received Wednesday by Mrs. W. D. Pierce, of this city, conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of her father, Capt. William Haymes, at his home near Elmo, Halifax county, Va. Death occurred that morning. Although Capt. Haymes had been ill for several months, he was feeble from old age, the news of his death came to his daughter as a great shock. Miss Eliza Pierce, who has been attending school at St. Martin's Ohio, arrived at Fort Gay Thursday afternoon, where her mother joined her and both went on to Elmo. The deceased left an aged widow, three daughters, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Barksdale, the mother of Mr. Will Barksdale, formerly of this city, and Miss Lillian Haymes; and one son, Capt. Haymes was a Confederate veteran, winning his title and distinction in the War between the States. He was 82 years old.

DEATH OF WILL FERGUSON.

A Former Louisian Passes Peacefully Away at Catlettsburg.

After many months of intense suffering, borne with cheerfulness and christian resignation, Will Ferguson died at his home in Catlettsburg last Monday afternoon. Interment occurred on Wednesday in the Ashland cemetery. His death was the result of cancer.

Mr. Ferguson was born in this city. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram Ferguson, who live in Huntington. Monroe and Lindsey Ferguson, of Louisa, are his uncles. He married Miss Viva Eaves, a most estimable young woman, also a native of Louisa. When quite a boy he entered the service of the Snyder Brothers as a salesman in their hardware store, and for six years he remained in their employ, honest, industrious, and faithful to every trust. No more highly respected young man ever lived among us and went out into the world to make his way. Mr. Ferguson went to Catlettsburg, and for 17 years he was the valued agent of the Adams Express Co., and in that capacity and in performing the duties of citizen, church member and the head of a family he won the confidence and respect of the whole community. The funeral occurred at the home of the deceased on Wednesday morning. The following concerning the last sad rites is taken from the Ashland Independent:

The funeral services were very impressive, being conducted by Rev. A. P. Smith. Beautiful prayers were offered by Rev. C. A. Slaughter, and Rev. B. S. Akers, of Ceredo. The song service was sweetly rendered by Miss Anna Wechsler, Mrs. Ernest Meek, Messrs. Harry Chatfield, and Dan Vose, who used the beautiful hymns, "Asleep in Jesus," "Nearer, My God To Thee," and "Abide with Me."

The floral offerings were many, emblems being sent by the Aid Society of the M. E. Church, Adams Express Company, for which the deceased was a faithful employee the past 17 years. The lodge K. O. T. M. and the Sunday school class of the M. E. Church in Ashland of which Chester, the elder son is a member and innumerable other tributes sent by the many friends. The deceased is survived by a devoted wife, two young sons, Chester and Fred, a mother and father, two sisters and one brother.

The remains were interred in the "Ashland City of the Dead." The pallbearers were the official Board of the M. E. Church of which deceased was a member; J. S. Jenkins, D. Davenport, W. B. Yost, J. B. Williams, Fred Becker and W. B. Beard.

A CHASTLY FIND.

Body of Long Drowned Man Exhumed Near Lock No. 2.

On Saturday morning last as a man named Lett was walking on the Kentucky side of the Big Sandy, a short distance below lock number two, near Kavanaugh he was startled to see the feet of a white man sticking out of a pile of sand near the edge of a bar formed by the receding water. He made his gruesome discovery known to others and the body was tied to the bank of the river. In an hour or so the sand had fallen from the body so much that it was exposed enough to permit a thorough examination. It was so far advanced in decomposition that one foot fell off while the remains were being handled. The hair and ears had come off, and handling the body was neither easy nor pleasant. The man was well dressed, all his clothes, including a short over coat and a red sweater, being of excellent material. Every pocket, including one that was fastened with a flap, was carefully examined, but not a scrap of anything was found by which the man's identity could be established. The fact that the man wore an overcoat at the time he was drowned is reasonable grounds for believing that death occurred last winter. There is no history of any drowning in this section during the past few months, and the man and his death, by drowning or otherwise, is a profound mystery.

Militia Service Pension Bill.

Washington, June 7.—The Militia service pension bill drafted by Representatives John W. Langley and Russell, of Missouri, was reported favorably by the House Committee on Invalid Pensions to-day with an amendment striking out a provision to pension wagoners and scouts who were injured on duty. The bill was only reported after an attempt had been made by Representative Sulloway, of New Hampshire, to break a committee quorum and after Representative Langley had got Representative Jackaway, of Arkansas, out of bed where he was suffering from a severe illness.

Two members of the committee had left to attend the funeral of Senator Nixon, of Nevada. Langley, who also was on the Nixon Funeral Committee, had remained here for the committee meeting to-day and a quorum was present when Representative Sulloway, enemy of the bill, walked out of the room, refusing to allow the clerk to mark him present. Jackaway's vote brought out the pension bill. The committee concluded there are so few injured scouts and wagoners surviving that they can be cared for by special pension acts.

NEW ACTS NOW EFFECTIVE.

All the acts passed by the last Legislature which did not contain emergency clauses ninety days after the adjournment of the General Assembly. Among the most important are the county unit local option extension law, the good roads legislation, and the acts creating the State Banking Department, the Fish and Game Commission, the Forestry Commission and the new Prison Commission. Besides these there are numerous amendments to the school law, which materially change the use of the Department of Education. The publication of the new acts has been somewhat delayed, but the volume is expected to be off the press shortly. Much interest is being manifested throughout the State in the new laws passed last winter, and which become operative to-morrow, some of which are very drastic in their provisions.

WHERE THEY ARE.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Conley left Monday for Olympia Springs to attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press Association. Jim Allen, of the Cynthiana Democrat locates Olympia Springs thus: Fifteen miles east of Estill Springs; twenty miles east of Estill Springs; ten miles southwest of Swango Springs; and thirty miles northeast of Blue Lick Springs. It is also not very far from Kinnikinnick and Holl Fr Sartin.

It is also about 235 miles, as the Crow flies, northeast of Corleau Springs, where the association met last year.

A BRIGHT YOUNG GRADUATE. Miss Lucy Millender graduated from Marshall College, Huntington, on Tuesday last and is now at home receiving the congratulations of her friends. Miss Millender is but sixteen years old, and to have successfully met the requirements of Marshall while so young shows the possession of industry and ability far above the average.

Happened Once Before.

The other day Mr. James Lackey rode into the river just below the dam to water his horse. The animal got into the quicksand, and when he began to plunge his rider was thrown off and required help before he could get safe to shore.

The incident recalls a somewhat similar one which occurred many years ago. Mr. Lackey had been elected to the Legislature, and on a certain Sunday morning he started from Louisa to Frankfort to begin his duties as representative. He was going on horseback as far as Catlettsburg and had to cross the river at this point to ride part of the way in West Virginia. Quite a large number of persons had congregated to see Mr. Lackey ford the river to Cassville. He had on his Sunday best, and on the saddle was a pair of saddle pockets stuffed with articles of clothing. He and his horse entered the water, and reached the point in good order and well conditioned. Here, however, Rosinante got into the quicksand, and in his efforts to get out the girth broke and saddle, saddle-pockets and Representative tumbled into the shallow but very wet water. Amid the jeers and yells of the irreverent crowd Mr. Lackey made his way back to the shore to make another and more successful start the following day.

Will Investigate Contempt Case.

Acting upon instructions from the President, Attorney General Wickersham will investigate the case of L. H. Salyers, of Pikeville, Ky., convicted in the Western Virginia District Court for contempt, in that he is alleged to have prevented two witnesses from obeying summons to testify in a moonshine case over the Kentucky-Virginia border line.

The two witnesses claimed in defense of their nonappearance that they had been advised by Salys that they would not appear in Court.

Salys is a wealthy and highly respected citizen, and upon learning that he had been indicted for contempt immediately went to Stone Gap, Va., where the Court was sitting. He did not engage an attorney and had no witnesses.

To his surprise he was sentenced to five years imprisonment, and out on $10,000 bail.

BAN ON DRINK.

Unlawful to Use Public Drinking Cups After June 12th.

Among the laws passed by the last Legislature that became effective last Wednesday, is the Dowling act prohibiting the use of public drinking cups. After June 12 it will be unlawful to provide a public drinking cup on any train or in any depot, hotel, restaurant or in any place frequented by the public. The full text of the new law is as follows:

The use of the common drinking cup on railroad trains and in railroad stations, public hotels, boarding houses, restaurants or steamboats, in stores or other public frequented places in Kentucky, is hereby prohibited. No person or corporation in charge of the aforesaid places, and no person or corporation shall permit on said railroad train, in railroad stations, public hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, steamboats, stores or any publicly frequented place in Kentucky the use of the drinking cup in common. There is also posted in a conspicuous place, by the individual or corporation, by the drinking water contained in any of the places mentioned in foregoing paragraph, a warning card-board with the above printed thereon in large letters, so they can be easily read. Any person or corporation violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction be fined in any sum of less than one dollar and not more than ten dollars, and each day's violation of the provisions of this act shall be considered a separate offense, punishable by fine in the amount named above.

All laws inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed. "The common drinking cup" is being generally recognized as a dangerous medium for the dissemination of disease. As a consequence it has been outlawed in various cities and States. The Kentucky Legislature in forbidding its use has fallen in line with other deliberative bodies that have taken this important forward step in the interest of the public health. Boards of health and city and county officials everywhere should see that the law is obeyed. If this be done the gain for cleanliness and sanitation will be great, and progress will be made in the warfare against preventable diseases."

Joseph Banks, a well known citizen of Duple, Floyd county, was thrown from a horse one day last week, sustaining injuries which resulted fatally. He was taken to Ironton for treatment but died without regaining consciousness. He was a wife and children.

"Since Caleb Powers cannot again ask for office on the grounds of vindication, and since he has made no record in Congress, the people are curious to know what his platform will be in his coming race. booter, blackbird, skipper and veteran of the War of 1812, now rounding out a life in which 116 years already have mounted up. Capt. Diamond, still as hearty as a youngster of 75 or 80, has come to realize, within the last few years, that it cannot be so very long before he will have to sign up for one last voyage, with an unknown set and a strange port before him; but before he pulls up anchor for that last cruise he is going to fill in his life log with a trip to St. Louis, that he may stand again on the water front there and look down the river toward Memphis and the Gulf.

Friends of Henry Yontsey, serving a life sentence for the assassination of Gov. Goebel of Kentucky, are again seeking his release on parole.

The June crop report of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture indicates that even with the most favorable weather, the grain production of the State must fall far below the normal.

Philadelphia.—Howard K. Buzby, a fish dealer, discovered a fish wearing a diamond ring in its gills. Mr. Buzby was sorting the fish from several barrels received from Angelenes when he noticed an odd bulge in the gills of one and tossed it aside as "defective." Later he examined the "defective" and found the diamond ring. He has sent word to Angelenes and if the original owner of the ring can prove his claim he can have the jewel.

Frankfort, Ky., June 6.—Donald Dunstall, 18 years old, of Falmouth, stepson of Secretary of State Creswell and clerk in the Corporation Department of State, tonight was rescued from the Kentucky river by Miss Rebecca Gooch, 15 years old, of this city. Dunstall was sinking his last time when Miss Gooch pulled him into her canoe. He was seized with cramps while bathing in 30 feet of water. His cries for help took Miss Gooch to his aid.

No many persons would relish the job of opening more than a dozen bottles of beer without a sip, but Sheriff John Millhaub, of Wichita, on orders from the Attorney General of Kansas, has an engagement to try the caps from 18,000 bottles without a drink. Last October a special detective for Gov. Stubbs seized two carloads of beer from Cincinnati. It was ordered destroyed, but the company effected an agreement whereby the liquor is to be poured out and the bottles and cases returned. Each bottle is to be emptied separately by the Sheriff.

Perryville, Ky., June 7.—Two daughters of Smith Cox, who recently removed from the Dry Fork neighborhood to the J. W. Moss farm, were horrified on awakening a few mornings ago to find a huge black snake coiled at the foot of the folding bed. On first seeing the black object, in the dim light, the girl supposed it to be a garment, and reaching for it, found it to be an immense snake. It crawled from the bed and was coiled under a chair by the time the frightened girls' father killed it.

Villisca, Iowa, June 10.—Joseph Moore, a prominent Villisca business man, his wife and four children and two young women visitors with the Moores were found murdered this morning in the Moore home. Their heads had been mashed and an ax covered with blood and hair was found.

All were murdered in their beds. There is no definite clue to the murderer, although search is being made, for one person suspected by the authorities.

No robbery was committed, and it seems that only a desire for revenge could have prompted the murder unless the work was done by a madman.

Boston, June 5.—The sentence of Mrs. Lena Cusumano, of Hull, condemned to die this week for the murder of her husband, Frank, was commuted to one of life imprisonment by the executive council to-day.

The woman declared that Enrico Mascioli killed her husband without her knowledge; that after the murder he threatened her life and took what money she had and declared himself the head of her house.

In the affidavit Mrs. Cusumano said: "I did not hire any one to hurt or kill, and I had nothing to do with the killing of my husband, Frank Cusumano."

Mascioli, convicted jointly with Mrs. Cusumano, must die in the electric chair, as the council refused last week to commute the death sentence.

Clinchfield's New Work.

It is announced in New York that the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio Railway has sold $5,500,000 of five-year 5 per cent. notes, dated May 1 of this year, for financing its extension from Dante, Va., to Elkhorn City, Ky., for which contract was awarded to the Rinehart and Dennis Company of Charlottesville, Va. The notes are secured by a first mortgage upon the proposed work, which is expected to be fully completed by the end of next year, as construction upon it begins immediately.

When your child has whooping cough be careful to keep the cough loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as may be required. Everything indicates that one of the largest crowds that ever attended a Democratic National Convention from Kentucky is going to the Baltimore gathering. Tentative arrangements were made by many Democrats who attended the recent State Convention, and it was suggested that it would be a fine thing if all the Kentuckians would travel together to the Monumental City. The members of Kentucky's official delegation will meet shortly and arrange for the trip to Baltimore and select the official route. While Kentucky has twenty-six votes in the Baltimore convention, thirty-three delegates were selected. The extra delegates are: Four from the State-at-large, two from the Eleventh and one from the Fifth district. The same number of extra alternates was chosen.

The Democratic State convention held recently may be the last ever held in Kentucky, except for the purely perfunctory purposes of enunciating a platform of principles, should the courts uphold the constitutionality of the State primary law enacted at the last session of the Legislature. It is regarded as a certainty that the next General Assembly will extend the scope of the law to embrace the selection of delegates to the national party convention and provide for a preferential presidential primary. While many rejoice that the old convention method promises soon to be a thing of the past, there are others who regretfully anticipate the passing of the time-honored institution that quadrennially at least, brought the Democrats of the State face to face.

Another "greatest living Kentuckian" has been found. The discoverer is the Winchester Democrat, and the discovered is Ollie James, the man who put himself in nomination at the Louisville convention.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of

W. J. FIELDS, of Carter County, for Representative in Congress from the Ninth district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Judge Robert J. Winn, of the Court of Appeals, has announced his retirement from the race for the Republican nomination to succeed himself at the August primary.

According to a statement of friends of Senator Bradley at Washington, he is preparing to enter the race for Governor of Kentucky and an organization is to be built up for him at once among Kentucky Republicans.

F. T. Dubois manager for Speak-in doubtful states, and using this as an argument for his nomination declaring he would carry 278 elec-

There is more Catarh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney &

Washington, June 11.—Representative Robert C. Wickliffe, of Louisiana, was run down on the tracks of the Southern railway in Potomac Park to-day and instantly killed. He had left the Capitol yesterday to be away to-day on a fishing trip. How he happened to stray on the railroad tracks has not been cleared up. The engineer of the train said he saw the Congressman too late to avoid the accident.

News of the tragic death of the prominent Southern Representative traveled fast, but did not reach Mrs. Wickliffe before she had started for the Capitol, as was her daily custom, to watch the proceedings in the House.

The circumstances surrounding the discovery of the body and the arrival of the unsuspecting wife, also a Kentuckian, in the House gallery just before the announcement of the death; the withholding of that announcement by Speaker Clark, who accidentally glimpsed Mrs. Wickliffe in the gallery and the subsequent breaking of the news to her in the Speaker's private office, embrace the elements of the most tragic and sorrowful of stories.

Conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Louisa but a number of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:
Mrs. Lewis, Franklin St., Louisa, Ky. says: "Doan's Kidney Pills fixed me up fine. I used seven or eight boxes and they completely rid me of kidney complaint. I am pleased to confirm the statement I gave in 1908 praising them." (Statement given January 3, 1912.)

On January 27, 1908 Mrs. Lewis said: "For a long time I suffered from various symptoms of kidney complaint. I experimented with many remedies but found no benefit until I took Doan's Kidney Pills.
This preparation gave me freedom from spells of backache, strengthened my kidneys and bladder and improved my health in every way. I have been convinced of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills."

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

It is very hard to convince young persons of eighteen or twenty years of age that their tastes are not as fully matured and judgment as ripe as is one of forty.

What a wonderful gift to be blessed with the attractiveness that makes every one wish to know the owner better, and yet it is a gift easy to possess or cultivate. It is about as elusive as the perfume of a flower, the bloom of the peach, or the song of a bird's twitter. It is only a smile, a courteous deed, an unselfish act performed at just the right time and place.

The capacity to enjoy life is one great thing, to be able no matter what happens to wear a serene face. If things are not as we would wish, enjoy what we can, and hope for better times. There are no more unattractive persons living than those who never enjoy life, who look upon it as a vale of tears, who, if they do take pleasure in anything, do so under protest. The most unpromising conditions of life may be made to yield us some good if we look for it, and the looking for it will do us good even if we do not find it; the dwelling on the disadvantages not only sours, but shuts off all hope of our seeing any possible good if it should be there. So, if we would make ourselves attractive in the best sense of the word, cultivate a capacity of pleasure in the little things, the bird songs, that waken us in the morning and we will never lack material to interest us, for our lives are made up of little pleasures, little troubles, and small things generally.

Cultivate a little more sentiment, indulge now and then in a little romance, open the windows of your soul to the south, and let the soft breezes blow through and perfume up your rusty old heart a bit. It will not harm you, and it will make you an infinitely more pleasant companion than you are now.

How Girls May Succeed.

Some of you are out in the world trying your own living; you have for 120 days to help some one at the office, well as take care of your Branch. You are up on a high stool, charged at tiresome figures in black and white; you are ringing out the edges of a letter or a law deed as a typewriter; you are standing behind a counter catering to the whims and wants of thousands of people; you are marking away reading proof, and wondering why people don't write plainly. But no matter what you are doing, you will never succeed in this world and you will be of no worth to the people who employ you unless you do the best you can. Do it for your own sake. Don't slight any work, no matter how poor it may seem to you—the work becomes great and noble the very second you put a great and noble determination into it. Of course you get tired, but every time you feel that tired feeling coming over you, stop for a minute, and give your eyes or hands a rest, and remember that the work done in the right spirit is the only work fit to offer God himself, and that is the way and spirit in which you ought to work.

By doing the best you can, by being just as patient as you can, your work is sure to receive recognition.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothurn, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the 1st results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old. Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength. Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and a page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

and that may mean more money and less work to you, because after a while the toll that seems so hard at first is going from mere force of habit to become easier, and you yourself, by doing good work are always smoothing out the pathway of the future. Make the drudgery divine and don't call it drudgery. Do what your hands find to do with a glad heart and don't think that you are the only woman in the world that has to work to earn her daily bread, but be thankful that God has given you ability with which to do it.

To be a mother, to be some man's inspiration, to live in the heart of the children, to be the center about which cluster life's holiest associations, surely this is the greatest blessing heaven can give, the greatest honor earth can bestow. When the sorrows and sacrifices, the loves and joys, dreams, hopes, ambitions, of prerogatives of motherhood are thine; woman, thou hast come to thy kingdom.

The ideal household is one where the parents manifest that fine courtesy that is to marriage what aroma is to a flower. Springing from mutual consideration, in time it grows to be involuntary as the act of breathing. To enumerate and classify such tokens of good breeding and fine manners is as impossible as to define music. They gild every action, they soften every vocal chord. From "morn till dewey eve" they appear and reappear.

From the morning when the Creator first called into being woman to be man's helpmeet on down through the centuries until this eventful period in which we live, in all the hopes and aspirations which have stirred men's souls in all the struggles and crises of the great drama called life, struggles with self and sin, with passion and pride woman has ever stood by man's side, his noblest, his truest, purest, most disinterested friend, pleading, praying, whispering words of encouragement, lifting him in strong arms of love toward heaven; and 'tis not her fault if he enters not its golden portals.

No individual in the world can do a mother's work for her.

Help To Keep Down Expenses.

Mrs. J. E. Henry, Akron, Mich., tells how she did so: "I was bothered with my kidneys and had to go nearly double. I tried a sample of Foley Kidney Pills and they did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and feel that they saved me a big doctor bill." For sale by All dealers.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

NEWS FROM COUNTIES JUST ACROSS THE RIVER IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Morgantown W. Va.—Julius Fishback, of Huntington High school, won the first prize in the state contest here for the best essay.

O. J. Rife of Wayne County was nominated for presidential elector of the Fifth district at Huntington. The primaries being over most of those cherub pictures which have been ornamenting the West Virginia newspapers for several weeks will now disappear.

Returns from the Wayne examination have been received and mailed to applicants. There were two No. 1 certificates issued to applicants in the county; forty-four No. 3's; forty-three No. 2's and fifty-six failures.

Supt. T. Howard Winters of Ceredo received the highest grade in the county and probably the highest in the state. His average was above 96 per cent and not below 90 per cent on any branch. Miss Mary Louise Cox of Ceredo received the other No. 1 issued in the county.

Huntington, June 6.—Formal notices that the Chesapeake & Ohio after nearly forty years of quietude will exert its claim to a right of way, 100 feet wide along Third street and Twenty-third street, are the cause of a small panic among real estate men and property owners along these streets.

Not only the positive action of the Chesapeake & Ohio in urging its title, but the discovery that the streets had never been dedicated to the city and that the railroad if it chooses can fill the 100-foot space with rows of iron rails, has caused a general stir of comment within the last few days, increasing as each property owner in turn received his formal notification. Some of the owners who did not even know that the C. & O. held the right of way, and real estate men, too, are alarmed at what appears to be a serious depreciation of property value along the strip claimed by the railroad.

The West Virginian who cut a stake in two with a hoe and was then attacked by both halves will find the experience valuable if he ever enters politics.

James F. Beavers, of Wayne county, was nominated as a candidate for congress by the democrats of the Fifth district of West Virginia. He was selected over W. W. Thomas, of Putnam county, his majority being decisive. Before the vote was announced the Putnam delegation withdrew the name of Mr. Thomas and the nomination of Beavers was made by acclamation. O. J. Rife, of Wayne county, was nominated as a candidate for presidential elector.

Parkersburg, W. Va.—In the largest Democratic convention in the history of West Virginia held here the party selected six delegates at large to the Baltimore convention, six alternates and a National Committeeman from this state.

The delegates at large were instructed to vote for Champ Clark for President "so long as a majority of all the delegates from this state believe his nomination can be accomplished, after which they shall vote for such candidates for President as a majority of all of the delegates from this state shall determine."

The members of the "big six" selected to go to Baltimore are: Henry G. Davis, of Elkins; Stuart W. Walker, of Martinsburg; Lawrence E. Tierney, of Foxhatan; William A. MacCorkle, of Charleston; Sam Hays, of Glenville, and J. J. P. O'Brien of Wheeling. The alternate delegates, who were elected by acclamation, were as follows: L. D. Morgan, of New Martinsville; R. A. Welch, of Keyser; William E. Deegans, of Glen Jean; Sam Cain, of Elizabeth; Thomas J. Newberry, of Huntington, and Wiley W. Beasly, of Wellsburg.

Edward G. Smith, of Clarksburg and Edward G. Bennett of Weston were the nominees for Judges of the Supreme Court and Hon. John T. McGraw, of Grafton, was reelected as National Committeeman.

The convention was presided over by Hon. John J. Cornwell, of Romney, who made the keynote speech.

WOMAN'S TRIALS.

The burdens a woman has to carry through life are many but they can be lightened if she will turn to Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. A soothing and strengthening nerve—subduing nervous excitability, prostration, hysteria, hot flashes and the many symptoms which may be caused by distressing ill health to women. For those "dragging-down" cases of distress and for the derangements and irregularities the "Favorite Prescription" has had many thousands of testimonials from people living in every part of America. Another important thing to every woman is that this medicine is made from efficient medicinal roots, without the use of alcohol, narcotics, or any injurious agents. Full list of ingredients given on bottle-wrapper and sworn to by Dr. R. V. Pierce—who is President of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Every woman is invited to write to this Institute and receive confidential and sound medical advice, entirely without cost from one who makes the diseases of women his specialty.

"I can cheerfully recommend your remedies, especially your 'Favorite Prescription,' for all female disorders," writes Mrs. M. M. MORRILL, of Bluff City, Tenn., Route 2. "During the past seven years I suffered from pains in the back and ovaries. I tried many remedies but found only transient relief until I was persuaded by a friend to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After giving this remedy a fair trial, I found that it would do just what it is recommended to do. I used it in all seven bottles. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce's remedy for all female derangements."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription regulates liver and bowels.

QUALITY---

There are several things that go to make up a great value—quality is one of them.

It isn't what you pay for a thing, but what you get for what you pay that counts.

Here is merchandise with QUALITY and the PRICES are right.

CLOTHES—Men's Young Men's and Boys—imported worsteds, home-spuns, chevots and fancy mixtures. Takes fine tailoring to produce such clothes.

STRAW HATS—Spills, sennits, fancy braids, bankoks and panamas. A shape for every face.

SHIRTS—Silk, linen, madras and flannel, in stripes and fancy patterns, some with soft cuffs and collars to match. Snappiest bunch of stuff we've shown in many seasons.

UNDERWEAR—Athletic—in two-piece and union, in all fabrics and for all builds.
